Matthew 18:33-38

33 Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

34 "Is that your own idea," Jesus asked, "or did others talk to you about me?"

35 "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "Your own people and chief priests handed you over to me. What is it you have done?"

36 Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is from another place."

37 "You are a king, then!" said Pilate.

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

38 "What is truth?" retorted Pilate.

“What is truth?”

Men more likely to cheat on wives because of bad economy

If the current economic doldrums persist and high unemployment and lower wages are a way of life, more men may cheat on their wives, U.S. researchers suggest.

Omri Gillath, a social psychology professor at the University of Kansas, said men are likely to pursue short-term mating strategies when faced with a threatening environment.

"We're biologically wired to reproduce, and the environment tells us the best strategy to use to make sure our genes are passed on," Gillath said in a statement.

"If you think you might die soon, there's a huge advantage for a man to use short-term mating strategies -- to make sure there are a bunch of offspring and hope that some of them survive -- but women can't do the same thing."

Do you agree with these statements?

Consider these questions:

- If no one believes the truth, does it cease to be the truth?
- Does absolute truth apply to the physical realm only or also to morality?

me what to do?

On morality...

Is it wrong for someone to impose morals on someone else?
